

An abstract black and white drawing featuring a central face with large, expressive eyes and a wide, open mouth. The drawing is composed of thick, gestural black lines and various geometric shapes, including a large, irregular shape at the top left and a large, irregular shape at the top right. The background is a mix of light and dark tones, with some faint, circular patterns on the right side.

ترانيم تعني في اللغة الأنشودة أو الطرب الخفيف، لذلك جاءت الأعمال المقدمة في المعرض بهذا المفهوم من حيث المقاس والخامة، فقد نفذت بالأسود والأبيض على ورق لتعطي قوة في التعبير والمعنى بتقنية الاختزال والتبسيط في الخطوط إلى جانب درجة اللون الأسود لتعطي انطباعاً مباشراً للمعنى.

Tranim is an Arabic word which means rhythmic melody or a rhyme. In this exhibition I try to translate this concept within the context of the 60 miniature paintings by using simple materials and modest sizes. The sixty 10x10 cm black and white paintings are worked on paper to convey the meaning and to reflect my perception of time. Simple lines in black ink are used to give the viewer a direct impression of the meaning.

The meaning here is the result of my visual accumulations from the reality and if measured in time then can be calculated in seconds to represent a different case of the visual landscape and the visual continuity of the scene.
